Reynolds School District is excited to announce that Graham Hughes has accepted the role of Principal of Davis Elementary School!

Graham Hughes has over twenty-three years of experience as a teacher, dean of students, athletic director, assistant principal, and building principal within the Gresham community. He brings strong student & parent engagement skills, clear communication, teacher development and coaching, and data-driven leadership.

Graham is eager and excited to begin the new school year at Davis Elementary! “As we work to provide an academic experience for our students which is rigorous, relevant, and builds relationships, it is important to me that every student, staff member, and family member who steps through our doors feel welcome and valued! I am very happy to be a part of the Reynolds School District family.”

Graham holds a bachelor's degree in Interdisciplinary Studies / Secondary Education from Western Oregon University and a master's degree in Athletic Administration from Idaho State University. Additionally, he earned his principal license from George Fox University.

Sincerely,
