

The fourth bargaining session between Oregon School Employees Association (OSEA) and Reynolds School District (RSD) was held on June 14, 2017 at the Reynolds Professional Development Center from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Proposals were exchanged as follows:

OSEA presented counter proposals for the following two articles:

Article 7 – Emergency Closure

The District presented an updated Memorandum of Agreement:

Article 4 – Fringe Benefits

MOU – Furlough Days for 2017/2018

There was continued discussion about the proposed MOU for cutting 10 days from the 2017-2018 work calendar due to the significant budget shortfall the district is facing for the 2017-2019 biennium.

Tentative Agreement was reached on:

Article 23 – Workshops/Courses

Memorandum of Understanding – No Contracting Out

Memorandum of Understanding – Educational Assistant Subcommittee

Next Session:

The next scheduled bargaining session will be held on June 26, 2017 from 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. at the Woodland Elementary School Library. The agenda will include:

District will bring counter proposals for

Article 5 – Paid Leaves of Absence

Article 7 – Emergency Closure

Article 8 – Salary

Article 9 – Holidays

OSEA will bring a counter proposal for Article 4 – Fringe Benefits

Future Sessions:

No future sessions have been scheduled at this time.