All the garages have ADA parking: However, the garages are a good distance from the entrance. Guests with limited mobility might consider bringing a wheelchair for the evening. All guests will be admitted into the coliseum starting at 6:00pm. The graduation ceremony will commence at 7:00pm

Families will enter through the main gates. The furthest gate to the south/left, if you're standing outside looking at the front of the coliseum, gate 10, is wheelchair accessible. (It's on the Pine Court side, opposite of the coliseum box office doors).

The MODA Center has ADA seating for guests in wheelchairs in Sections 5 and 7. These are limited to 1 person in a wheelchair and 1 companion seat (example: if there's 1 person in the party with a wheelchair and 10 other family members, only 1 family member can sit in the actual ADA deck with them and the rest of the party will need to sit in the permanent seats). If they run out of wheelchair seating, then the ADA guest and their 1 companion will be seated down on the floor (where the graduates are) - that's the overflow area for wheelchairs.

The top row of each section is reserve for limited mobility guests. The MODA center has very limited wheelchair seating. If a guest is not using a wheelchair, there will be plenty of seats for them to sit in that area.
