Course Description AP World History: Modern encompasses the history of the five major geographical regions of the globe with a special focus on the historical developments and processes that cross multiple regions. The course will focus on five themes through 800 years of history to develop the student's ability to think historically and find commonalities between the different regions and time frames, to build a conceptual understanding of the evolution of our planet.

Grading Policy:

Your grade will be determined by earning points on traditional homework, classwork, quizzes, essays, and exams. Your final grade will be reported on a traditional A-F scale, though this class will be given Honors Credit

AH – 100% - 90% (with AP Test)

BH – 89% - 80%

CH – 79% - 70%

D – 69% - 60%

F – 59% - 0%

Roughly 25% of your grade will be based on Unit Exams, 20% on weekly reading quizzes and 55% on all other assignments and projects

Work will be given a due date and an expectation that the work will be turned in at that time, no late work will be tolerated.

You enrolled in this class for the AP credit, so it holds that you will take the AP Exam, that is the goal of this class. If you choose to not take the AP Exam the highest grade you can earn is a BH.

Every student will take the AP test on May 15th, 2024.

COPYING / PLAGARISM are not acceptable and if found the student will face the consequences found in the student code of conduct. Along with removal from AP World History.
