Mind the things you do, from using a Bunsen burner to the words you say. BE HELPFUL -- "Helping your classmates is the highest form of scholarship." We are in this together, so help a classmate out. LISTEN -- Listening carefully at all times. Not only is it respectful and important to safety, but you can learn something to help others. Late work & Due Dates

Classwork: If classwork is completed after the due date it will earn half credit. Students can turn in classwork up to the last day of the unit. Exceptions will be given for excused absences.

End of the units are Hard Deadlines. After the hard-deadline no more late work will be accepted.

Late mastery assignments may be turned in up to a week after the hard deadline with major grade penalties.

Homework

There are no regular homework assignments. Students will be provided enough time in class to do classwork, labs, and projects. Each minute of class is precious. Students will be expected to work from bell to bell. Unfinished work will have to be completed at home.

I encourage students to spend time doing things that actually improve academic performance: after school activities, eating dinner with their families, and getting a good nights sleep.

Grades

- Classwork (20% of the grade): This category includes individual and daily work, quizzes, and some labs.
- Mastery (80% of the grade): This category includes unit test, projects, and some labs.

Scores are entered into StudentVue/ParentVue. If you do not have an account to check grades online, you may get one from the office. Students and parents are encouraged to check their grades online.
